

GMU's At-Home Art!

What's in here?: This packet contains art activities for the weeks of art classes we are missing, and then some. There is a lot of variety to keep your creative juices flowing!

What do I need?: This packet is designed for you to use what you have at home! Pencil, markers, colored pencils, pens...anything! Most activities can be completed without internet access or use of the suggested videos, but additional internet resources can help.

How do I turn it in?: Bring it back when school resumes. I want to see all of your wonderful creations! In the mean time, you can send me pictures of your beautiful creations to ahughes@gmucsd.org!

Additional Activities: At the end, there is a long list of art-related activities and resources for you and a parent to do at home. Make sure that if they require use of internet, you have asked for your parents permission and/or are under direct supervision.

Stay entertained. Stay creative. Stay healthy. I miss you dearly and can't wait to see your smiling face again! Happy creating, my artists! Sending love and rainbows,

Miss Hughes

Art Bingo!

Win a prize when school resumes by getting a BINGO by completing 5 in-a-row of the art activities! Accompanying resources are on the back page. Make sure to take pictures or bring in your finished work as proof!

More worksheets at www.twinkl.com/worksheets

What is he driving?

1 Start by drawing an eye near the top left corner of the paper. Draw an upside-down "U" above the eye for the bony ridge.

2 Add a curved line for the back of the head. From the ridge, draw a line that approaches the right side of the page, then cuts in below the eye. Add another ridge on top.

3 Draw the bottom jaw and curve the line down to run off the bottom of the page for the neck.

4 Add a nostril and a backward "C" shape for the nose. Add pointy teeth, then connect the top and bottom jaw with a curved line.

5 Close off the bottom jaw and make a line from the corner of the mouth to the bottom of the page. Add stripes.

6 Add details! You can add stripes, scalloped lines, zigzag lines and shapes. Don't forget a few feathers on the head!

AWESOME

Missing Mona!

Did you know that in 1911, Da Vinci's Mona Lisa was stolen? It's true! In what is known as the greatest art theft of the 20th century, Vincenzo Peruggia stole Mona from the Louvre Museum in Paris, France. He believed that Mona, painted in Italy by the famous Italian artist/scientist/inventor Da Vinci, had been wrongfully stolen from the Italian people, and wanted to get her back for the good of his country. Eventually, Peruggia was caught and imprisoned for his crime. The Italians thought he was a national hero for his act! What do you think?

Directions: Write a different story about the Mona Lisa getting stolen. Who took her? How? Why? Did she ever get returned to the Louvre Museum in Paris, France?

In the box below, draw a picture of the heist in your story!

More time? Draw an entire story book or make a movie!
